

Sunday 20 May

- 10:15 – 11:45 hrs Nurses MDT symposium: Immunotherapy: The Good, The Bad and Witty
- 10:15 – 10:45 hrs The Good- Overview and Indications of Immunotherapy in Oncology
- 10:45 – 11:15 hrs The Bad - Immunotherapy-induced Endocrinopathy
- 11:15 – 11:45 hrs The Witty- The Role of Endocrine Nurse in Managing Patients with Immunotherapy-induced Endocrinopathy
- 12:00 – 13:15 hrs Nurses symposium & panel discussion: Models of transition
- 12:00 – 12:30 hrs Keynote speaker: Principles and models of Transition – an overview
- 12:30 – 13:00 hrs Discussion of transition in different settings and patient cohorts
Paediatric to adult transition in Endocrinology
Transition between settings: hospital to community
Transition in Diabetes
- 13:00 – 13:15 hrs Panel discussion and Q&A

Monday 21 May

- 12:00-13:00 hrs Meet the Nurse Expert & Case Discussions
Nursing Management of CAH: Education & Use of Multi-media Technology
- 15:15 – 17:15 hrs Nurses professional development, networking session and oral/poster presentations
- 15:15 – 15:30 hrs Welcome and update on ESE Nurses activities
Sofia Llahana, Chair of ESE Nurses Working Group
- 15:30 – 15:45 hrs Endocrinology and Diabetes Nursing practice in Spain
- 15:45 – 16:00 hrs Comparison of glucose, peak growth hormone & peak cortisol levels during insulin tolerance test with two different doses.
UK, Winner of Nursing poster award at ECE 2017
- 16:00 – 16:45 hrs Oral presentations from Nurse poster presenters at ECE 2016 & 2017
1. Role of the Endocrine nurse in the MDT in improving care for patients with thyroid cancer
 2. Influence of educational training course in improving knowledge of diabetes mellitus among nurses
 3. Development of educational material for patients with T1D and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
- 16:45 – 17:15 hrs Poster awards presentations and networking