PARAT
An Educational Programme on Parathyroid Disorders

Kindly supported by educational grants from Takeda and Ascendis pharma
Governance

Co-Chairs:
Jens Bollerslev (Norway) & Peter Kamenický (France)
Steering committee. 12 experts recommended by ESE committees
PARAT: An ESE Calcium and Bone Educational Programme on Parathyroid Disorders

Governance

ESE Clinical committee via ESE office

Co-Chairs and Steering committee
Governance

ESE Clinical committee via ESE office

Co-Chairs and Steering committee

4x PARAT Working Groups = 30 Faculty

- Primary Hyperparathyroidism
- Chronic Hypoparathyroidism in Adults
- Preconception, pregnancy & lactation

Medical Education

PARAT: An ESE Calcium and Bone Educational Programme on Parathyroid Disorders
PARAT: An ESE Calcium and Bone Educational Programme on Parathyroid Disorders

Governance

ESE Clinical committee via ESE office

Co-Chairs and Steering committee

4x PARAT Working Groups = 30 Faculty

- Primary Hyperparathyroidism
- Chronic Hypoparathyroidism in Adults
- Preconception, pregnancy & lactation

Medical Education

PARAT community = 50 further experts, from 20 countries

ESE programme support
Consensus

• 3 sub teams agreed their consensus by cascading their expert opinions over several months
Consensus

- 3 sub teams agreed their consensus by cascading their expert opinions over several months
- Following review of literature after 1999, 33 draft consensus questions and responses were created
Consensus

- 3 sub teams agreed their consensus by cascading their expert opinions over several months
- Following review of literature after 1999, 33 draft consensus questions and responses were created
- Expert editorial teams combined summaries and figures and tables were devised
• Final draft sent out for PARAT community review
PARAT: An ESE Calcium and Bone Educational Programme on Parathyroid Disorders

Publication

- Final draft sent out for PARAT community review
- 4th Expert seminar, validated the final draft findings
• Final draft sent out for PARAT community review

• 4th Expert seminar, validated the final draft findings

• Submitted to EJE and peer reviewed. Final manuscript re-submitted today