Meetings

Three meetings per year, one for each issue of ESE News.

Remit

1. ESE News is dedicated to keeping endocrinologists across Europe and beyond up to date with ESE activities and other relevant news.

2. The Newsletter acts as a platform for communication and provides a range of information including feature articles (including regular columns, such as 'Endo Explorer' and 'A day in the life'), society news, ESE committee updates, ECE news and diary/deadline date information
3. The Editorial Board is responsible for the planning of issues and generating ideas for content.

Additional notes

- Committee members should make every effort to attend all meetings. Any Committee member who does not attend a meeting for a year will be asked to step down, other than in exceptional circumstances.
- All Committee members need to be paid up members of the Society.
- All papers and minutes must be treated in strictest confidence.
- All Committee members must act in the best interests of the Society.
- Any potential conflicts of interest should be declared at the start of a meeting or as they arise, and the member concerned should take no part in the relevant area of discussion.
- The Chair should not serve a second consecutive term of office, unless there are exceptional circumstances identified by the Executive Committee.
- The Society is committed to equal opportunities and the promotion of equality, diversity and inclusion and where possible this committee should follow the principles of ESE's Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy.
- Committee membership should represent key areas of interest and geographical spread; the Executive Committee should take this into account when nominating Editorial Board members.
