Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to welcome you to the beautiful city of Prague for the 28th European Congress of Endocrinology (ECE). We are excited to bring together endocrine specialists from across Europe and the rest of the world to meet, collaborate and celebrate endocrinology. Filled with the latest endocrine research and developments, we hope the next few days will inspire and energise you, and that you will leave feeling very much a part of our endocrine community.

This year is a special celebration, as the European Society of Endocrinology (ESE) reaches 20 years since its inception in 2006. We invite you to join in with the activities to mark this important anniversary, which will take you on a journey through some of the key milestones from 2006 to 2026 – both within our Society and within the field of endocrinology.

Our strong commitment to reducing the environmental impact of this Congress means having less printed materials. You will find the main information in this Congress Guide and the rest online on the Congress platform or the website, you just need to scan the QR code on the front cover. All the information which would normally be printed is in the Congress e-Bag (online) - simply visit the Congress e-Bag wall in the Registration Hall or on the Congress App or platform.

The programme is varied, vibrant and stimulating, so whatever your area of interest, there will be sessions that are of direct relevance, as well as plenty of networking opportunities. Over the coming days you will be able to join Plenary sessions, Meet the Expert sessions both clinical and basic science, Award sessions, symposia, debates, industry symposia, either in person or live-streamed. If you miss any sessions, you can catch up on demand via the Congress platform.

We hope you enjoy the vibrant atmosphere in the exhibition and poster areas, the exceptional science, meeting colleagues and making new friends and we look forward to seeing you throughout the Congress.

Patient Advocacy Groups (PAGs) play a key role in the support and management of patients with endocrine conditions. ESE has a PAG Affiliate Membership Scheme, allowing us to work closely with these groups to ensure that the patient's voice is reflected in everything we do. Our affiliated PAGs work together within PAG Communities, aligned with ESE's Focus Areas, sharing their knowledge and expertise with each other and the wider endocrine community.

Make sure you visit the Patient Experience Zone in the First Floor foyer, where you can meet with representatives from these Communities, discuss ways in which you can collaborate with these important groups, and find information and resources to support your research and practice.
