Reporting The Committee reports to the ESE Executive Committee through the Congress Committee Chair.

Meetings The Congress Committee will usually meet at least twice a year. Other business will usually be conducted by email.

The work of the committee is very important. Committee members are expected to attend all committee meetings and to participate in committee related email communications.

Committee members who do not attend three consecutive meetings (or one meeting in a year if meetings are held annually) will be asked to step down, other than in exceptional circumstances.

Remit

1. To provide a link between the vision and strategy of the ExCo and the ESE Office and PCO (Professional Congress Organiser).
2. To provide a link between the vision and strategy of the ExCo and the ESE Office and PCO (Professional Congress Organiser).
3. To provide input to the PCO, ESE Office and Executive Committee for the initial critical evaluation of proposals from candidate cities and the selection of 2-3 final challengers for each annual congress.
4. To provide a link to the ESE Team in relation to practical items such as industry time slots, programme, and educational concepts etc.
5. To support the Committee Chair through:
 - a. To advise the PCO, ESE Office and ESE Executive Committee on policy decisions regarding ECE Congresses.
 - b. To assist the PCO and ESE Office in providing guidance for the LOCs of future meetings.
 - c. To review the scientific programme, update, and final reports of congresses so that the Chair can report on these to the Executive Committee.

Note: The Congress Committee Chair will have overall responsibility for the ECE POC and will supervise the scientific programme. The role of the Congress Committee Chair and the POC is detailed in the POC Guidelines document.
