

Endocrine Views Editorial Board

Committee Composition

Chair (Editor) A member of the European Society of Endocrinology, designated by the Executive Committee. The Chair does not need to be a member of the ESE Executive Committee.

Full members: Up to 8 members.
An open call for available Committee positions will be advertised. ESE members can apply themselves or nominate someone else. Current Committee members can also make nominations. This Committee will review and vote on the applications/nominations received. The Committee Chair will then propose the new member(s) to the Executive Committee, who will ratify the new member(s).

Membership to include:
EC Editor-in-Chief, or representative
EJE Editor-in-Chief, or representative
EYES News Editor
EYES Representative

Ex-officio members: ESE President
ESE President-elect
ESE CEO

Co-opted members: None stated

Quorum 3 full members (including the Chair)

Duration of Service

Chair: 4 years.

Full members: 4 years.

Ex-officio members: Co-terminous with office.

Co-opted members:

Reporting The Committee reports to the ESE Publishing and Communications Committee.

Meetings Three meetings per year, one for each issue of Endocrine Views .

Remit

1. Endocrine Views is dedicated to keeping endocrinologists across Europe and beyond up to date with ESE activities and other relevant news.
2. The magazine acts as a platform for communication and provides a range of information including feature articles (society news, , ECE news and diary/deadline date information

3. The Editorial Board is responsible for the planning of issues and generating ideas for content.

Additional notes

- Committee members should make every effort to attend all meetings. Any Committee member who does not attend a meeting for a year will be asked to step down, other than in exceptional circumstances.
- All Committee members need to be paid up members of the Society.
- All papers and minutes must be treated in strictest confidence.
- All Committee members must act in the best interests of the Society.
- Any potential conflicts of interest should be declared at the start of a meeting or as they arise, and the member concerned should take no part in the relevant area of discussion.
- The Chair should not serve a second consecutive term of office, unless there are exceptional circumstances identified by the Executive Committee.
- The Society is committed to equal opportunities and the promotion of equality, diversity and inclusion and where possible this committee should follow the principles of ESE's Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy.
- Committee membership should represent key areas of interest and geographical spread; the Executive Committee should take this into account when nominating Editorial Board members.

Current membership

Chair

Editor: Marek Bolanowski, Poland (2023-2026)

Co-Editor: Eleni Armeni, Greece/UK (2024-2026)*

*Eleni Armeni will take on Editor role 2026-2030

Full members

Misa Pfeifer, Slovenia (2020-2024)

Karim Meeran, UK (2021-2025)

Maria Chiara Zatelli, Italy (2021-2025)

Lina Paschou, Greece (2023-2027)

European Journal of Endocrinology representative:

Olaf Dekkers, Netherlands or Robert Semple, UK (co-terminous with office until 2025)

Endocrine Connections representative:

Faisal Ahmed, UK (co-terminous with office, 2024-2026)

EYES representatives:

EYES News Editor Walter Vena, Italy, (co-terminous with office 2021-2025)

Karin Zibar, Croatia (co-terminous with office 2023-2027)

Ex-officio

Jérôme Bertherat, France, Co-Editor (President, co-terminous with office)

Wiebke Arlt, (President-elect, co-terminous with office and EJE EiC)

Helen Gregson, UK, (CEO, co-terminous with office)

Caroline Brewser, UK (Ex-officio, Sub-Editor)

ESE Team member responsibility: Head of Membership, Marketing and Communications